Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: KS3 Year 9 Homework timetable for students at Sir John Cass School

Please find attached with this letter the homework timetable for your son/daughter's year group for this academic year. The nominated days are when your son/daughter should complete homework in that particular subject.

It is expected that homework is completed in all the listed subjects at least once a week. If you feel that your child is not being set homework regularly then please contact the school as a matter of some urgency. In addition to regular homework; this year we are introducing project based homework in some subjects. At the allocated times below your child will have an ongoing project set for this particular subject area – at these times please carry on supporting your child with homework completion as appropriate.

	Year 9 project subjects
Autumn term 1	history geography
Autumn term 2	computing
Spring term 1	Science
Spring term 2	Science
Summer term 1	history
Summer term 2	computing

Homework completion is a vital part of your child's education, please support your child in completing homework as much as you can (Allocating time for homework, encouragement, checking through their work, checking through their planners for deadlines etc).

The following information gives you a guide as to how much time your child should aim to spend on homework:

Year 9 50 minutes on EACH piece

Year 9 should be completing a minimum of 10 hours homework every week.

Finally, if there is ever a situation when your child is unable to complete homework for legitimate reasons (family emergency, serious illness etc.), please could you make sure you provide an explanation in your child's planner – otherwise they will receive a detention for not completing homework on time.

Yours Sincerely

Mr P. Woods.

Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: KS4 Homework timetable for students at Sir John Cass School

Please find attached to this letter the homework timetable for your son/daughter's year group for this academic year. The nominated days are when it is suggested that your son/daughter should complete homework in that particular subject.

It is expected that homework is completed twice a week for English, Maths and Science and at least once a week in the other subjects. In year 10 and 11 it is expected that students will spend at least one hour on EACH piece of homework set, this means across the week students should be spending at least 15 hours on homework a week.

Homework completion is a vital part of your child's education; please support your child in completing homework as much as you can (Allocating time for homework, encouragement, checking through their work, checking through their planners for deadlines etc.).

Finally, if there is ever a situation when your child is unable to complete homework for legitimate reasons (family emergency, serious illness etc.), please could you make sure you provide an explanation in your child's planner – otherwise they will receive a detention for not completing homework on time.

Yours Sincerely
