Wednesday 18th March

Dear parents / carers,

This is a notice regarding arrangements for Year 12 and 13 over the next two days.

Wednesday 18th March

Year 12 students

- Students will be dismissed at 1.10pm today. This is because usually they have enrichment on Wednesday afternoons. Under the circumstances, enrichment has been cancelled.

Year 13 students

- Students who do not have a lesson during Period 5 are free to leave at 1.10pm

Students are able to have lunch in school before they leave, if they wish.

Thursday 19th March and Friday 20th March

Year 12 students

- Students should come in at 9am if they have a timetabled lesson, other than Supervised Study
- All students should be in from 10am, regardless of what lessons they have
- Students who have Supervised Study timetabled for BOTH periods 4 and 5 will be free to leave at 12.20pm
- Students with timetabled lessons Period 4 and / or Period 5 should stay on site
- Students will not need to attend morning registration

Year 13 students

- Students should attend their timetabled lessons only
- Students are still free to use the Library and The Space for revision during free periods
- Students will not need to attend morning registration
- Students should not leave site to go home if they have afternoon lessons

For further updates, please continue to check the school website.

We thank you for your continued support during this time.

Ms K Rowley-Conwy
Assistant Headteacher
