Eduqas Media GCSE Newspaper Workbook & Revision Guide

This booklet is for YOU to revise everything we have learnt in the Newspaper Media Language and Representation unit for GCSE Component 1 (remember that's the first paper!)

Hopefully you will have a bit of fun completing these tasks, as you prepare for your GCSE exams.

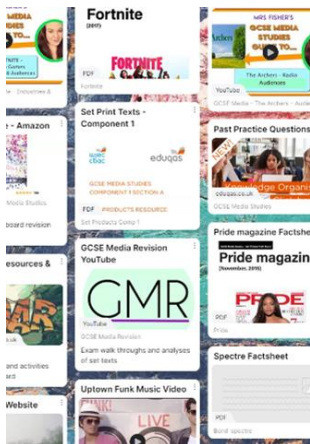

DON'T WORRY if you are unsure about something, go back to the work we did in class and call on your fellow media students to help explain things.

Keep this booklet safe you will need it right up to your final exams.

we'll be here to help you through the booklet - to get full A* answers of these Newspaper front covers look at the back two pages.

Why Study Media?

WHAT SKILLS WILL I DEVELOP:

Lots! Not only will you pick up lots of design and analytical skills, but Media Studies will even help you to develop skills that you'll be able use in your other subjects, such as:

- Critical thinking
- Analysis
- Research
- Planning
- Practical skills
- Time management
- Essay writing skills and more.

WHERE MIGHT MEDIA STUDIES TAKE ME:

During the GCSE Media course you'll develop and practise a range of skills which will equip you for progression to A Level study. They will also help you hugely in other areas such as English, Humanities and Social Sciences. Looking further ahead, Media is one of the fastest growing industries in the UK - second only to banking. There is a huge array of career opportunities in the media, and it's an industry that is growing very quickly.

Future Pathways with Media:

- If you are interested in the idea of a career in TV and film production, advertising, journalism, interactive media, and digital marketing, technical production, special effects, web design and post-production, then studying Media at GCSE level is a great place to start. There has never been a better time to become a Media Studies student. To learn more check out the links below:
